LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

High School

Good food and good conversation was the order of the evening when members of the Executive Board of the Torrance High School PTA met for a pot luck supper and social evening at Torrance Park recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jackson hosted the get-together and treated the group to watermelon and hot coffee. Mrs. Jackson is president of the organization.

Attending with their families, besides the Jacksons, were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ahee, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Osterlind, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Pulliam and Mrs. Paul Crossman.

Perry

Perry PTA executive board has planned a "Coffee Hour" for the faculty of Perry Elementary school on Monday morning, Sept. 9 at 10 a.m. All teachers are invited.

Heading the coffee hour committee is Mrs. Glenn Thomas. She is being assisted by Mmes. Kenneth Judd, Jerome Lemberger, Lester Cooper, Stanley Hoffman, Willard Waddell and Bill Van Meter.

Seaside

A meeting of the Seaside board was held at the home of Mrs. Merle Unger, second vice president, on Aug. 28, at 1 p.m., with Mrs. Clyde Miller, president, in charge.

It was announced that there will be a faculty luncheon on Sept. 9 at the school. Mrs. James Mason, hospitality chairman, and her committee, are completing plans on the menu, which will be prepared and served by members of the board.

It was decided that the "get-acquainted" breakfast will be held on Oct. 3, at the home of Mrs. Joe Walters, 22825 Lupine Dr. Doughnuts and coffee will be served between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. to all parents and faculty members who wish to attend.

Mrs. Merle Unger, second vice president, will head the membership drive, which will be held the week of Oct. 7-11.

Plans are being completed for a debate on "Fluoridation" at the first PTA meeting on Sept. 24.

The carnival, to be held on Oct. 26, will feature various booths and a parade with prizes for the best costumes.
